

News Notes and Gossip of Washington Smart Set

Items of Interest and Importance of Past, Present, and Future Among Official and Fashionable Folk.

The chapel of the Papal legation was the scene of a very charming wedding at 11 o'clock this morning.

Maria Heredia Calvo, daughter of Don Joaquin Bernardo Calvo, one time minister of Costa Rica, became the bride of Thomas Dempsey Harrington, of Boston.

Monsieur Bonzano, the apostolic delegate, performed the ceremony and the young brothers of the bride, Rafael and Lino Calvo, assisted at the altar.

Senor Calvo gave his daughter in marriage at the bride looked charming in a gown of white satin and tulle, trimmed with handsome Irish point lace.

Miss Celina Calvo, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore a pale blue satin frock, with a hat of gold lace and brocade tulle trimmed with fur.

The bridesmaids, Miss Kathleen Anderson and Miss Clara Jaeger, of Montclair, N. J., wore pale yellow satin gowns.

Little Miss Josephine Veller, who served as flower girl, wore a pale blue liberty smock and a blue poke bonnet, with small yellow roses for trimming.

John A. Langman, of Albany, and Joseph Lamorelle, of Philadelphia, were groomsmen, and the bride's two brothers, Arturo and Joseph M. Calvo, with Mr. Harrington's brother, Francis Harrington, served as ushers.

After the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvo in Seventeenth street. Mr. Harrington and his bride were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Calvo.

The guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Calvo, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weller, and Mrs. L. F. Fisher, in addition to Dr. and Mrs. Harrington, there were a number of out-of-town guests.

Among the guests at the wedding were: Mr. Robert Lansing, the Ambassador of France and Mme. Jusserand, the Minister of Peru and Mme. Pineda, the Minister of Salvador and Mme. Zaldívar, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Foster, Miss Brain, John Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Yaguez, Mr. Edwin Seton, Mrs. J. J. Weller, and Mrs. L. F. Fisher.

In the afternoon Mrs. Harrington left for a wedding trip. Mr. Harrington is in business in Costa Rica, and will take his bride to her native country.

Last evening the bride entertained at dinner at the Shoreham in compliment to her bride party, and during the evening she presented her attendants with dainty pins set with sapphires. Her guests were Mrs. Edwin Seton, Mrs. James A. McGraw, Mrs. Kirk Newell, Mrs. Richard Austin, Miss Clara Jaeger, Miss Kathleen Anderson, and Miss Corbin.

Mr. Harrington entertained John A. Langman, Joseph Lamorelle, Charles Lavelle, Raymond Lohche, Kirk Newell, J. M. Calvo, William Harrington, and Francis Harrington at dinner at the Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, Miss Dempsey, and George Dempsey, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Calvo at dinner last evening, are stopping at the Willard.

Mrs. Julian James has issued invitations for a dinner on October 13.

Mrs. Henry C. Corbin, who has been motoring through the North for several weeks, has returned to Washington and is at her apartment in the Connecticut.

Mrs. Corbin's sister, the Misses Patten, are also in town and have opened their Massachusetts avenue home for the season.

Mrs. Anna E. Hendley has closed her bungalow in Atlantic City, where she has had her house guest Mrs. Nanette B. Paul for the month of September. They have returned to Washington for the opening of the Fair.

Comtesse d'Adhemar and her son, Comte Raoul d'Adhemar, are at the Richmont for the winter. They will spend the autumn at their home, The Manor, at Moss Neck, Va.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Boyd are making a short stay in New York, where they are stopping at the Wolcott.

Mr. and Mrs. William Payne Meredith returned to Washington yesterday from Virginia Warm Springs, where they spent the summer. They are at their home in Chevy Chase, and returned during the summer by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kite, who have taken possession of their residence in R street for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel C. P. Wickstead are staying at the Hotel Carleton in New York for a few days.

Lieutenant Commander E. M. McCauley, Jr., U. S. N., who has been in command of the Scorpion, will come to Washington shortly for duty at the Bureau of Naval Intelligence in the Navy Department.

The Washington Post, 305, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, have sent out invitations for a reception to its sponsor and maid of honor on Tuesday evening, October 12, at 8:30 o'clock, at the Cairo Dancing will follow at 10:30 o'clock.

The Rev. C. E. Smith will officiate at the marriage of Miss Antoinette Juliana Tyssowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Tyssowski, and Harry Oswell Clayberger, at 8 o'clock this evening at St. Thomas Church, which will be decorated with palms and masses of pink chrysanthemums. The bride, who will be given away by her father, will be gown in white satin embroidered with pearls, with an over dress of pearl embroidered silk net and a bertha of point lace. The bride will be caught to the hair with orange blossoms, and her bouquet will be lilies-of-the-valley and roses.

Her sister, Miss Isabelle Tyssowski will be her only attendant, and will be gown in pink taffeta and silk net with trimmings of silver and will carry an arm bouquet of pink chrysanthemums. Franklin Clayberger, Jr., will be best man for his brother, while the ushers will be Dr. Paul Butski, W. W. Twaddell, Jr., of Philadelphia, and Herbert Cogswell, and Elmer Gates. There will be a double ring service, and the small brother of the bride, Joseph R. Tyssowski, will carry the ring to be worn by the bridegroom.

A reception will follow at the home of the bride, where the palms and pink chrysanthemums will form the decorations. The guests will be received by Mr. and Mrs. Tyssowski, the latter wearing a black and blue net trimmed with black and blue iridescent trimmings. She will carry America Beauty roses.

Later the couple will leave for an extended wedding trip, the bride wearing a tailored suit of dark blue broadcloth trimmed with fur and a small blue and black toque.

Some of the out-of-town guests who will attend the wedding are: Mrs. Oscar W. Wood, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Clayberger, parents of the bridegroom; Miss Elizabeth Clayberger, Miss Mable Clayberger, Miss Myrtle Clayberger, and Mr. and Mrs. John Buswell, of London, N. J.

Miss Janie Outlaw Hunt, the only daughter of W. H. Hunt, of Oxford, N. C., was married to Arthur Landis, U. S. N., Saturday evening at 9 o'clock at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Oxford. Twelve officers of the navy acted as ushers. A reception followed at the residence of the bride, where an orchestra played for dancing.

The presents included a silver service, one from the class of 1915 of the Naval Academy and the other from the officers of the Utah.

Mrs. Luther W. Mott, wife of Congressman Mott of New York, with her children, has arrived in Washington for the winter. Mrs. Mott will join her family at the opening of Congress.

They have taken an apartment at 1621 Sixteenth street. Mrs. Mott is active in D. A. R. work, having served for five years as regent of the Fort Osgood Chapter, and being a new honorary regent. She is also prominent in woman suffrage work in New York, and is the district leader for her home county of Oswego.

Mrs. Robert R. Hitt will leave Washington next week for White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

The marriage of Miss Gay Montague, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Andrew Jackson Montague of Virginia, and Landon Carter Wellford, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Rand Wellford, of Richmond, will take place this evening at 7 o'clock at the Richmond home of Congressman and Mrs. Montague in the presence of a small party of relatives and intimate friends.

The bride-to-be was educated at Hollins College, and has accompanied her father on a mission of importance for the Government to South America, and to Europe. Congressman Montague is one of the most distinguished men in the State. Mr. Wellford belongs to one of the oldest and best known families in the South, and Sabine Hall, the Wellford home in Richmond county, is one of the show places of that section of Virginia. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. W. C. Cowles, U. S. N., are at the Astor Hotel in New York city, after spending a few days in this city.

Mrs. Whitelaw Field, who is a guest of Mrs. William D. Sloane in Lenox, Mass., will leave there today for her home in White Plains, N. Y.

Miss Helen Blodgett, daughter of Mr. Delois Blodgett, will be the first debutante of the Washington season. Mrs. Blodgett will give a tea for her friends on Tuesday evening, October 12, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Blodgett in Sixteenth street, well known among smart Washington residents.

These are a few of the extraordinary bargains to be had at this time. We give free stool, scarf and one year's tuning free with these instruments, and can make terms to suit your convenience.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

13th and G Sts. N.W.

Many Entertainments Are Planned by the Leaders of Society in Washington. Gossip of Hostesses.

dence, having been for some years the home of former Senator and Mrs. Foraker. Mrs. Blodgett will entertain frequently during the winter for her daughter, who will be a charming addition to the younger ranks of society.

Miss Blodgett, who is now a guest of a former schoolmate at Chicago, will go from there to Grand Rapids, Mich., the former home of her mother. She will make her first bow there next Tuesday, when her uncle, F. H. Peck, will give a dinner dance for her at the Country Club.

Miss Louise E. Davis became the bride of Rufus C. Wyong yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivins Davis at Congress Heights.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. M. Bennett, pastor of the Congress Heights Methodist Church, in a bower of white chrysanthemums, golden-rod and palms, the same scheme of decoration being carried out throughout the lower floor. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, with an overdress of lace trimmed with pearls and ornaments and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Blanche Burdick, wore blue crepe de chine and carried pink bride roses. Samuel Houston was best man. A reception followed when the young couple were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, Mrs. Davis, who wore a handsome gown of pale gray crepe de chine and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay. Later Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay.

26 Novelty Suits for little boys, 2½ to 8 years of age. They are made of serge, velvet, and corduroy in handsome one-third floor, Eleventh street.

Robert Bacon, who has been the guest of Henry Clay Frick, at Eagle Rock, the Frick summer home in Prine's Crossing, Mass., has returned to New York, accompanied by Mr. Frick.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing were here at dinner yesterday evening, when the guests of honor were the Chinese Minister and Mme. Shih. Some of the guests were the newly appointed Chinese Minister to Mexico, Dr. Kuo; Mr. Wong, and Frank Polk, counselor of the State Department.

The Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff, Mr. and Mrs. William Storrs Wells, and Mrs. George C. Hanna were some of the dinner hosts of last evening at the Plaza, in New York city.

Men in uniforms of blue and gold stood at attention yesterday noon when their chief, Gen. George Pershing, Scriven, and Miss Elizabeth McQuade, daughter of Mrs. Peter McQuade, of New Brighton, Staten Island, were married at the home of the bride's mother.

The wedding of Miss McQuade and General Scriven, who is chief signal officer of the army, was the outcome of a romance that began at Gloucester, Mass., during the summer.

Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the army, was General Scriven's best man. Miss Betty Scriven, the general's daughter, attended the bride. The Right Rev. Monsignor Cassidy, rector of St. Peter's Church, New Brighton, officiated. The wedding breakfast which followed was attended only by relatives and intimate friends.

Mrs. Peter McQuade announced the engagement of her daughter to General Victor J. McQuade, master of the Richmond County Hunt, is a sister of Mrs. Scriven. She has one sister, Miss Mary McQuade.

Among the guests was another daughter of General Scriven, Miss Katherine Scriven. His first wife, who was Miss Bertha Bragg, was the daughter of Gen. Edward S. Bragg, General Scriven was graduated in 1878 from the United States Military Academy. He has been military attaché in Mexico and Rome, attended the Russian coronation, and was detailed with the Turkish forces in 1897. General Scriven saw service in Cuba, the Philippines and China.

He is a member of the University and the New York Athletic Clubs, and of the Army and Navy, Metropolitan, and Riding and Hunt Clubs, of Washington. His home in this city is at 2000 N street.

Guests at the wedding were Col. Arthur Smith, Col. Robert Geddes, Lieut. John Grady, Mrs. and Miss Lulu Benish (Continued on Twelfth Page.)

Many Entertainments Are Planned by the Leaders of Society in Washington. Gossip of Hostesses.

dence, having been for some years the home of former Senator and Mrs. Foraker. Mrs. Blodgett will entertain frequently during the winter for her daughter, who will be a charming addition to the younger ranks of society.

Miss Blodgett, who is now a guest of a former schoolmate at Chicago, will go from there to Grand Rapids, Mich., the former home of her mother. She will make her first bow there next Tuesday, when her uncle, F. H. Peck, will give a dinner dance for her at the Country Club.

Miss Louise E. Davis became the bride of Rufus C. Wyong yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivins Davis at Congress Heights.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. M. Bennett, pastor of the Congress Heights Methodist Church, in a bower of white chrysanthemums, golden-rod and palms, the same scheme of decoration being carried out throughout the lower floor. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, with an overdress of lace trimmed with pearls and ornaments and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Blanche Burdick, wore blue crepe de chine and carried pink bride roses. Samuel Houston was best man. A reception followed when the young couple were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, Mrs. Davis, who wore a handsome gown of pale gray crepe de chine and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay. Later Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay.

26 Novelty Suits for little boys, 2½ to 8 years of age. They are made of serge, velvet, and corduroy in handsome one-third floor, Eleventh street.

Robert Bacon, who has been the guest of Henry Clay Frick, at Eagle Rock, the Frick summer home in Prine's Crossing, Mass., has returned to New York, accompanied by Mr. Frick.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing were here at dinner yesterday evening, when the guests of honor were the Chinese Minister and Mme. Shih. Some of the guests were the newly appointed Chinese Minister to Mexico, Dr. Kuo; Mr. Wong, and Frank Polk, counselor of the State Department.

The Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff, Mr. and Mrs. William Storrs Wells, and Mrs. George C. Hanna were some of the dinner hosts of last evening at the Plaza, in New York city.

Men in uniforms of blue and gold stood at attention yesterday noon when their chief, Gen. George Pershing, Scriven, and Miss Elizabeth McQuade, daughter of Mrs. Peter McQuade, of New Brighton, Staten Island, were married at the home of the bride's mother.

The wedding of Miss McQuade and General Scriven, who is chief signal officer of the army, was the outcome of a romance that began at Gloucester, Mass., during the summer.

Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the army, was General Scriven's best man. Miss Betty Scriven, the general's daughter, attended the bride. The Right Rev. Monsignor Cassidy, rector of St. Peter's Church, New Brighton, officiated. The wedding breakfast which followed was attended only by relatives and intimate friends.

Mrs. Peter McQuade announced the engagement of her daughter to General Victor J. McQuade, master of the Richmond County Hunt, is a sister of Mrs. Scriven. She has one sister, Miss Mary McQuade.

Among the guests was another daughter of General Scriven, Miss Katherine Scriven. His first wife, who was Miss Bertha Bragg, was the daughter of Gen. Edward S. Bragg, General Scriven was graduated in 1878 from the United States Military Academy. He has been military attaché in Mexico and Rome, attended the Russian coronation, and was detailed with the Turkish forces in 1897. General Scriven saw service in Cuba, the Philippines and China.

He is a member of the University and the New York Athletic Clubs, and of the Army and Navy, Metropolitan, and Riding and Hunt Clubs, of Washington. His home in this city is at 2000 N street.

Guests at the wedding were Col. Arthur Smith, Col. Robert Geddes, Lieut. John Grady, Mrs. and Miss Lulu Benish (Continued on Twelfth Page.)

Many Entertainments Are Planned by the Leaders of Society in Washington. Gossip of Hostesses.

dence, having been for some years the home of former Senator and Mrs. Foraker. Mrs. Blodgett will entertain frequently during the winter for her daughter, who will be a charming addition to the younger ranks of society.

Miss Blodgett, who is now a guest of a former schoolmate at Chicago, will go from there to Grand Rapids, Mich., the former home of her mother. She will make her first bow there next Tuesday, when her uncle, F. H. Peck, will give a dinner dance for her at the Country Club.

Miss Louise E. Davis became the bride of Rufus C. Wyong yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivins Davis at Congress Heights.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. M. Bennett, pastor of the Congress Heights Methodist Church, in a bower of white chrysanthemums, golden-rod and palms, the same scheme of decoration being carried out throughout the lower floor. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, with an overdress of lace trimmed with pearls and ornaments and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Blanche Burdick, wore blue crepe de chine and carried pink bride roses. Samuel Houston was best man. A reception followed when the young couple were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, Mrs. Davis, who wore a handsome gown of pale gray crepe de chine and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay. Later Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay.

26 Novelty Suits for little boys, 2½ to 8 years of age. They are made of serge, velvet, and corduroy in handsome one-third floor, Eleventh street.

Robert Bacon, who has been the guest of Henry Clay Frick, at Eagle Rock, the Frick summer home in Prine's Crossing, Mass., has returned to New York, accompanied by Mr. Frick.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing were here at dinner yesterday evening, when the guests of honor were the Chinese Minister and Mme. Shih. Some of the guests were the newly appointed Chinese Minister to Mexico, Dr. Kuo; Mr. Wong, and Frank Polk, counselor of the State Department.

The Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff, Mr. and Mrs. William Storrs Wells, and Mrs. George C. Hanna were some of the dinner hosts of last evening at the Plaza, in New York city.

Men in uniforms of blue and gold stood at attention yesterday noon when their chief, Gen. George Pershing, Scriven, and Miss Elizabeth McQuade, daughter of Mrs. Peter McQuade, of New Brighton, Staten Island, were married at the home of the bride's mother.

The wedding of Miss McQuade and General Scriven, who is chief signal officer of the army, was the outcome of a romance that began at Gloucester, Mass., during the summer.

Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the army, was General Scriven's best man. Miss Betty Scriven, the general's daughter, attended the bride. The Right Rev. Monsignor Cassidy, rector of St. Peter's Church, New Brighton, officiated. The wedding breakfast which followed was attended only by relatives and intimate friends.

Mrs. Peter McQuade announced the engagement of her daughter to General Victor J. McQuade, master of the Richmond County Hunt, is a sister of Mrs. Scriven. She has one sister, Miss Mary McQuade.

Among the guests was another daughter of General Scriven, Miss Katherine Scriven. His first wife, who was Miss Bertha Bragg, was the daughter of Gen. Edward S. Bragg, General Scriven was graduated in 1878 from the United States Military Academy. He has been military attaché in Mexico and Rome, attended the Russian coronation, and was detailed with the Turkish forces in 1897. General Scriven saw service in Cuba, the Philippines and China.

He is a member of the University and the New York Athletic Clubs, and of the Army and Navy, Metropolitan, and Riding and Hunt Clubs, of Washington. His home in this city is at 2000 N street.

Guests at the wedding were Col. Arthur Smith, Col. Robert Geddes, Lieut. John Grady, Mrs. and Miss Lulu Benish (Continued on Twelfth Page.)

Many Entertainments Are Planned by the Leaders of Society in Washington. Gossip of Hostesses.

dence, having been for some years the home of former Senator and Mrs. Foraker. Mrs. Blodgett will entertain frequently during the winter for her daughter, who will be a charming addition to the younger ranks of society.

Miss Blodgett, who is now a guest of a former schoolmate at Chicago, will go from there to Grand Rapids, Mich., the former home of her mother. She will make her first bow there next Tuesday, when her uncle, F. H. Peck, will give a dinner dance for her at the Country Club.

Miss Louise E. Davis became the bride of Rufus C. Wyong yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivins Davis at Congress Heights.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. M. Bennett, pastor of the Congress Heights Methodist Church, in a bower of white chrysanthemums, golden-rod and palms, the same scheme of decoration being carried out throughout the lower floor. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, with an overdress of lace trimmed with pearls and ornaments and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Blanche Burdick, wore blue crepe de chine and carried pink bride roses. Samuel Houston was best man. A reception followed when the young couple were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, Mrs. Davis, who wore a handsome gown of pale gray crepe de chine and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay. Later Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay.

26 Novelty Suits for little boys, 2½ to 8 years of age. They are made of serge, velvet, and corduroy in handsome one-third floor, Eleventh street.

Robert Bacon, who has been the guest of Henry Clay Frick, at Eagle Rock, the Frick summer home in Prine's Crossing, Mass., has returned to New York, accompanied by Mr. Frick.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing were here at dinner yesterday evening, when the guests of honor were the Chinese Minister and Mme. Shih. Some of the guests were the newly appointed Chinese Minister to Mexico, Dr. Kuo; Mr. Wong, and Frank Polk, counselor of the State Department.

The Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff, Mr. and Mrs. William Storrs Wells, and Mrs. George C. Hanna were some of the dinner hosts of last evening at the Plaza, in New York city.

Men in uniforms of blue and gold stood at attention yesterday noon when their chief, Gen. George Pershing, Scriven, and Miss Elizabeth McQuade, daughter of Mrs. Peter McQuade, of New Brighton, Staten Island, were married at the home of the bride's mother.

The wedding of Miss McQuade and General Scriven, who is chief signal officer of the army, was the outcome of a romance that began at Gloucester, Mass., during the summer.

Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the army, was General Scriven's best man. Miss Betty Scriven, the general's daughter, attended the bride. The Right Rev. Monsignor Cassidy, rector of St. Peter's Church, New Brighton, officiated. The wedding breakfast which followed was attended only by relatives and intimate friends.

Mrs. Peter McQuade announced the engagement of her daughter to General Victor J. McQuade, master of the Richmond County Hunt, is a sister of Mrs. Scriven. She has one sister, Miss Mary McQuade.

Among the guests was another daughter of General Scriven, Miss Katherine Scriven. His first wife, who was Miss Bertha Bragg, was the daughter of Gen. Edward S. Bragg, General Scriven was graduated in 1878 from the United States Military Academy. He has been military attaché in Mexico and Rome, attended the Russian coronation, and was detailed with the Turkish forces in 1897. General Scriven saw service in Cuba, the Philippines and China.

He is a member of the University and the New York Athletic Clubs, and of the Army and Navy, Metropolitan, and Riding and Hunt Clubs, of Washington. His home in this city is at 2000 N street.

Guests at the wedding were Col. Arthur Smith, Col. Robert Geddes, Lieut. John Grady, Mrs. and Miss Lulu Benish (Continued on Twelfth Page.)

Many Entertainments Are Planned by the Leaders of Society in Washington. Gossip of Hostesses.

dence, having been for some years the home of former Senator and Mrs. Foraker. Mrs. Blodgett will entertain frequently during the winter for her daughter, who will be a charming addition to the younger ranks of society.

Miss Blodgett, who is now a guest of a former schoolmate at Chicago, will go from there to Grand Rapids, Mich., the former home of her mother. She will make her first bow there next Tuesday, when her uncle, F. H. Peck, will give a dinner dance for her at the Country Club.

Miss Louise E. Davis became the bride of Rufus C. Wyong yesterday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivins Davis at Congress Heights.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. M. Bennett, pastor of the Congress Heights Methodist Church, in a bower of white chrysanthemums, golden-rod and palms, the same scheme of decoration being carried out throughout the lower floor. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine, with an overdress of lace trimmed with pearls and ornaments and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Blanche Burdick, wore blue crepe de chine and carried pink bride roses. Samuel Houston was best man. A reception followed when the young couple were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother, Mrs. Davis, who wore a handsome gown of pale gray crepe de chine and a tulle veil of greenish-brown. Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay. Later Mrs. M. J. J. of Greenboro, N. C., a sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Charles Enright and Mrs. Andrienne McKay.

26 Novelty Suits for little boys, 2½ to 8 years of age. They are made of serge, velvet, and corduroy in handsome one-third floor, Eleventh street.

Robert Bacon, who has been the guest of Henry Clay Frick, at Eagle Rock, the Frick summer home in Prine's Crossing, Mass., has returned to New York, accompanied by Mr. Frick.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Lansing were here at dinner yesterday evening, when the guests of honor were the Chinese Minister and Mme. Shih. Some of the guests were the newly appointed Chinese Minister to Mexico, Dr. Kuo; Mr. Wong, and Frank Polk, counselor of the State Department.

The Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff, Mr. and Mrs. William Storrs Wells, and Mrs. George C. Hanna were some of the dinner hosts of last evening at the Plaza, in New York city.

Men in uniforms of blue and gold stood at attention yesterday noon when their chief, Gen. George Pershing, Scriven, and Miss Elizabeth McQuade, daughter of Mrs. Peter McQuade, of New Brighton, Staten Island, were married at the home of the bride's mother.

The wedding of Miss McQuade and General Scriven, who is chief signal officer of the army, was the outcome of a romance that began at Gloucester, Mass., during the summer.

Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the army, was General Scriven's best man. Miss Betty Scriven, the general's daughter, attended the bride. The Right Rev. Monsignor Cassidy, rector of St. Peter's Church, New Brighton, officiated. The wedding breakfast which followed was attended only by relatives and intimate friends.

Mrs. Peter McQuade announced the engagement of her daughter to General Victor J. McQuade, master of the Richmond County Hunt, is a sister of Mrs. Scriven. She has one sister, Miss Mary McQuade.

Among the guests was another daughter of General Scriven, Miss Katherine Scriven. His first wife, who was Miss Bertha Bragg, was the daughter of Gen. Edward S. Bragg, General Scriven was graduated in 1878 from the United States Military Academy. He has been military attaché in Mexico and Rome, attended the Russian coronation, and was detailed with the Turkish forces in 1897. General Scriven saw service in Cuba, the Philippines and China.

He is a member of the University and the New York Athletic Clubs, and of the Army and Navy, Metropolitan, and Riding and Hunt Clubs, of Washington. His home in this city is at 2000 N street.